

North Cyprus Beaches

Contributed by Administrator
Sunday, 13 September 2009
Last Updated Monday, 14 September 2009

North Cyprus Beaches

Escape Beach

Situated on the Girne to Lapta Road. The beach has a Landscaped area with grass and sunbeds for anyone who may prefer not to sunbath on the beach itself, there is also a restaurant, toilets and changing area. The water here is shallow and you can walk most of the way to beach's own little island. There is an admission charge which covers the use of the beach and services. Acapulco, Chataalköy,

A 1 km long well kept sandy beach belonging to the Acapulco Beach Club and Resort Hotel. Access to the beach is via the entrance to the resort hotel where a charge to use the beach and services is made. There is also a bar and restaurant overlooking the beach. For more details visit there website Acapulco hoiliday Resort Alagadi Beach

A large beach approx 10 miles from Kyrenia and about a hundred yards or so past St. Kathleen`s restaurant This is a public beach and so there are no real facilities and you should take your own, such as sunbeds and so on, this is a very popular beach throughout the season visited by locals and holiday makers alike. Sunset Beach

Located approx 5 miles to the west of Kyrenia, and beyond Karaoglanoglu. Toilets, showers and sunbeds are available, and there is also a bar and restaurant. Mare Monte's hotel beach

Situated 10 miles west of Kyrenia, and provides all facilities for which an entrance fee is charged Deniz Kizi Beach

Situated approx seven miles west of Kyrenia